LOOK TO F. D. R. TO SAVE CONFERENCE FROM COLLAPSE

Nations of Europe Join in An Appeal to President for His Assistance

MUST SAVE THE DOLLAR

American Power and Influence Needed to Stop Dollar
Fluctuations

GEOLOGICAL MUSEUM, LONDON.
England, June 30.—For the second time in history, an international conference looked to President Franklin D. Roosevelt today to save it from collapse.

The nations of Europe joined in an appeal to the American executive asking him to use his power and influence to stem the roller-coaster fluctuations in the value of the American dollar.

At the same time a new attempt was launched to obtain American support on a temporary currency stabilization agreement.

Action of the conference in appealing to President Roosevelt recalled his recent efforts to rescue the Disarmament Conference at Geneva from complete extinction and which he did by sending an appeal to the rulers of all nations to collaborate in eliminating the instruments of war.

With the appeal to President Roosevelt was cabled the text of a currency stabilization declaration which the United States was asked to sign. Despite the frenzied efforts on the part of the continental "gold bloc" to obtain Britain's signature to the declaration before it was sent "on approval," the British government flatly declined unless the United States signs also.

The declaration, cabled to Washington last night, starts out by affirming the "desirability" of a general return to the gold standard at a rate and time satisfactory to the prospective signatories. The gold nations specifically affirm their intentions of preserving their present gold rate, while the nations off the gold standard, notably Britain and the United States, are called upon in the declaration to express sympathy with this position.

The declaration concludes with a unanimous statement of the desirability of preventing violent currency fluctuations.

Reading, June 30.—Mrs. Cornelia Bryce Pinchot, wife of Governor Gifford Pinchot, today was expected to join the picket line of more than 5,000 hosiery mill workers of 17 factories here. She is also scheduled to make two addresses; one at a strike rally and another at a meeting of taxpayers'

Frances Perkins intervened in the strike and ordered Dr. Benjamin M.

to file a report with Secretary Perkins after holding hearings.

PROBE RAILROAD EMPIRE

Washington, D. C., June 30.—The efforts of the Kuhn, Loeb & Company to help the Pennsylvania Railroad build a mighty rail empire than that dominated by J. P. Morgan & Company was probed today at the final summer session of the Senate Banking Inquiry.
Ferdinand Pecora, special Senate counsel, turned the spotlight on this struggle between the financial masters of Wall Street, to the control of the American "iron horse."

The spotlight was turned on the Kuhn, Loeb & Company operations after previously investigating the Morgan domination of railroads, to determine whether the American investing public paid the costs of this gigantic battle. Pecora summoned Henry Lee, president of the Penn Road Corporation as a witness to explain the greatest empire to rival Morgan.

This corporation was financed by Kuhn, Loeb & Company, and garnered $140,000,000 in railroad assets. It was opposed to the Morgan controlled Al-legheeny Corporation with its $600,000, 000 of assets, including the rail interests of the Van Sweringen Brothers.

Revelations of the Kuhn, Loeb & Company interests in railroads will feature the closing session. The inquiry then will be adjourned until October 3rd, when the New York Stock Exchange, Investment Trust and the international loans of J. P. Morgan & Company, and the Kuhn, Loeb & Company will be investigated.

per cent of the state's working population, a decrease of 31,714 from ment was reported in 58 of the state's 67 counties.

FORMER PASTOR HERE DIES WHILE FISHING

Rev. Dr. Samuel W. Gehrett Succumbs While Visiting in Poconos

WAS 89 YEARS OF AGE

The Rev. Dr. Samuel W. Gehrett, former pastor of the Methodist church here, died suddenly yesterday while fishing in Broadheads Creek, near Cresco, in the Poconos. A heart attack was the cause of the death of the retired and widely known clergyman who was 89 years of age.

Dr. Gehrett came here as pastor of the local Methodist church in 1908 and served three years. His pastorate here was very successful. He conducted a revival and added 52 new members to the church. During the time he was in charge here the church celebrated both its 120th and 121st anniversaries with a week of special services each time.

Dr. Gehrett's former home was at 131 West Mount Pleasant avenue, Philadelphia. The last three years he had lived in Atlantic City. Born at Cass-ville, Huntingdon County, he attended Cassville Seminary and Drew Theological Seminary. In December, 1873, he married Mary H. Hann, daughter of Judge Philip Hann, of Washington, N. J.
His wife and daughter, Mrs. Samuel T. Fox, survive.

The degree of doctor of divinity was conferred on him in 1895 by Drew Seminary, and a similar degree was conferred in 1905 by Dickinson College. At various times he served St.
James, Toga, Centenary, Mariners' Bethel and Roxborough churches in Philadelphia, also churches in South Chester, Hattboro, Coatesville, Norristown, Pottstown and Bristol.

Dr. Gehrett enlisted in the Civil War as a private and served two years and five months. Under General Custer and General Sheridan, he fought with the Twenty-second Regiment of Pennsylvania Cavalry.

FORMALLY ANNOUNCE HOSPITAL LAWN FETE

Mrs. H. R. Shipp States Affair Will Occur July 19th to 22nd

TELLS OF THE PLANS

In a letter addressed to the public today Mrs. H. R. Shipp, president of the Auxiliary of Harriman Hospital, makes formal announcement of the lawn fete which is to be sponsored by that organization on July 19, 20, 21 and 22nd.

Mrs. Shipp's letter reads:

This letter will announce to you the occasion of the lawn fete to be held under the auspices of the Auxiliary of Harriman Hospital on July 19, 20, 21, 22, 1933.

As you have been frequently advised previously, the Harriman Hospital was purchased in 1922 from the U. S. Government. During Federal administration there was an extremely large deficit, but it was an emergency movement and effort and financial circumstances could not be considered.
Following the termination of Federal activities in this vicinity, the hospital was closed. For a period of ten months an effort was made to finance the hospital but without success.

In 1923, after one year's trial, the Auxiliary of Harriman Hospital was organized in an effort to subsidize as far as possible the matter of the care of the indigent, the poor and the oppressed. It was not expected any effort would be made to encroach upon the work of any other physician within the scope of our influence nor to paunder the accepted standards of financial reimbursement for professional services rendered. Annually an addition to the hospital has been made as far as our means could afford. New sections have been added, new operating tables have been purchased, and everything done that would serve to create a modern hospital unit. To itemize each addition would not interest you and it would require more space than this letter could afford.

Last year we adopted a slogan, "Servamus Fidem." ("We are keeping the Faith") and by that we mean that for the co-operation we have received we have never refused attention or admission at Harriman Hospital excepting, of course, in cases of contagious diseases and those cases prohibited by Federal regulations.

We intend again this year to conduct as pleasant a social affair as possible on the lawn in front of the hospital. We will try to have everything that will make an attractive exhibition and try also to conduct as satisfactory an affair as we have in previous years.
Again this year we appeal to selected residents of this community and we realize in doing this we should try to make it interesting.

Regarding our work at the hospital, at this time we have no statement to make. Our work must be estimated only by the activities of our daily lives and we frankly feel there is not a single resident of Bristol or its vicinity who needs any explanation or description. We have enjoyed our work immensely. We only hope to have the strength and wisdom to continue under the banner of our motto, "Servamus Fidem."

At this time we respectfully solicit your contribution to the continued success of the Harriman Hospital.

Very truly yours,
MRS. H. R. SHIPP.

TO LIVE IN NEW JERSEY

A quiet wedding was that of Miss Margaret F. Hendricks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hendricks, 611 Cedar street, and Edmund B. Schoonmaker, son of Mrs. E. B. Schoonmaker, Linden, N. J., which took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Members of the immediate families attended the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. William M. Hendricks, brother of the bride and pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Bellevue. The wedding march was played by Miss Doris Hendricks, sister of the bride.

Bridesmaid was Miss Marion Hendricks, sister of the bride; and Fred Schoonmaker, Linden, N. J., brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride was attractive in a sleeveless white matinee gown, fashioned on form-fitting lines to the hips and flaring into a full skirt. A large white eyelid organoid collar finished the round neck-line. She wore white kid slippers, and a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Marion Hendricks was attired in a close-fitting model of pink lace, with a blue organoid jacket. Her slippers were blue.
Her corsage was of pink rosebuds and delphinium.

A reception followed for the immediate families. The couple left for a honeymoon trip by motor, and will be away one week. The bride travelled in a yellow crepe dress, with a brown crepe jacket and brown accessories.

ODD FELLOWS DEFEAT HULMEVILLE NINE

TIE GAME AT PARKLAND

LOWER BUCKS COUNTY LEAGUE

Schedule for tonight
LANGHORNE at PARKLAND
Results of last night's games A. O. H., 6; Bristol A. A., 1 Odd Fellows, 3; Hulmeville, 1 Parkland, 2; Langhorne, 2

Air-tight twirling by Barney Lyzcek was the feature of the A. O. H.—Bristol A. A. game on Sullivan's field last night as the Hibernians chalked up their first victory of the second half.
Final score was 6-1.

Lyzcek, who was introduced to the Bristol fans last season, is from Burlington. During last year and the first half of this season he amazed the Bristol fandom with his handling of the Hibernian hurler while doing backstop duty. Last night he was in a different role, that of a moundsman and did make good!

He limited the A. A. to a solitary base blow and would have had a shutout win if his mates did not error to put a runner in the scoring position.
Stromp made the only blow off Lyzcek and that was a single in the fourth inning. Lyzcek helped his own cause by smashing out a triple.

Gleason did some fine fielding to aid the Hibernian pitcher while Massella came through with several fine stops for the Mulholland men. The losers did some rather loose fielding to aid the Hibs.

Hines and Williams led the hitters with two hits each.

On the Hulmeville field, the Bristol Odd Fellows added the second straight victory by eking out a close win over the Hulmeville A. A. team, 3-1.

The tilt was a hurling match between Turner Ashby and Joe Kohler for the Odd Fellows and Howie Black for the Hulmeville club. Kohler took Ashby's place on the hill during a last ditch rally by the Hulmeville team.

During the first six innings, Ashby blanked the ultimate losers with two hits which were made by Bilger and Black. Then the Oddies' moundsman collapsed. Black slammed a two-bagger to center and crossed the plate on Watson's single. Bruce moved up Watson with another hit and when Haefner singled the bases were loaded.
This was enough for Ashby and Kohler came in. Hemp hit one back at Kohler who threw to Afterback to retire Watson at the plate. Afterback's throw to first doubled Hemp. Rockhill ended the doings by rolling out to Paul.

The Oddies scored in the first when Still was hit with a pitched ball and Paul walked. Hibbs forced Still and Ashby struck out but Hemp missed the third strike and Paul counted.

Two more went to the Odd Fellows in the fifth when with two outs, Af-terback singled and scored on Still's double. Paul's two-bagger counted Still.

A mound duel between Wilson Holland and "Skinny" Davis at Parkland last night ended in a 2-2 deadlock.

THE COTTON EXPERIMENT

One of the many experiments to which the Federal Government stands committed in giving the country a "new deal" is being prepared for application to the cotton farmers of the South.

The secretary of agriculture, Mr. Wallace, has announced a program contemplating the leasing by the government of 10,000,000 acres of cotton land at a cost estimated at between $100,000,000 and $150,000,000. The money for this, to be obtained by a processing tax, of course, will come out of the pockets of the consumers of cotton products.

Operation of the plan, the secretary explained, will be dependent upon the response the government receives to its invitation to cotton growers to take the pledge to reduce their acreage by a certain amount. As the proposal means that farmers will be paid for not growing cotton, it seems unlikely that any considerable number will refuse to sign up. The object of the undertaking is to assure the planter a profitable price for the cotton he does grow by utilizing all of his available land.

Will the plan prove successful? Not even those who originated the plan know the answer to this question. The experiment represents one of the big guesses of the new administration. The result of the experiment will not become evident immediately.

It is entirely possible, for example, that farmers will be encouraged by high prices to plant larger crops and that the government will be forced to lease a constantly increasing amount of land in order to keep the harvest down. That, however, is in the future. Just now, in farming as in industry, we are not thinking so much of long-range consequences as of present prices. While present prices are favorable, everything, to use the urban vernacular, "is jake."

This tendency to look only at the present and ignore the future is not without danger. If persisted in with respect to all features of the gigantic recovery program now getting under way it may lead to very complicating difficulties. Well balanced judgment is called for if serious mistakes are to be avoided.

JOBHOLDERS WILL PAY

Financially speaking, the Democratic party now has less need for Federal patronage than it had after the 1928 campaign. But that does not mean it will not make the fullest use of the spoils.

When the ill-fated 1928 campaign closed the Democratic national committee was $1,500,000 in the red. It now owes only $28,642 and has $11,051 in the treasury. One small assessment against the thousands of Federal jobholders, who accept that as part of the bargain, will wipe out the debt and put more dollars in the treasury.

The $700,000 "mortgage" John J. Raskob, national chairman in 1928, held against Democracy has been reduced to only $80,250 through payments by the debtor and partial cancellation by the creditor. Democracy found in him its first real "angel" and still calls him its biggest creditor.

Men are eager to fight for a woman, but she must cry "Save me!" instead of "Sic 'em, darn you."

But some facts that every one who drives a car should know

The Atlantic Refining Company is deeply interested in what the public thinks about this company and its products.

It is not interested in participating in any "battle of ballyhoo" within the refining industry.

For 68 years, Atlantic has been giving the public the finest products it knew how to make . . . at the lowest prices it could achieve. And the public has responded to this policy. Today, for instance, the motorists of Pennsylvania buy more than twice as much ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH as any other gasoline . . . proof, we believe, that they find high quality and unusual value in this motor fuel.

Atlantic holds no brief for or against any factor in the refining industry. There are good companies with good products, and poor companies with poor products.

But nothing is more destructive to American business than to have the factors in an industry tear at each other's throats in unfair and malicious competition.

This results in workmen losing jobs and pay. It brings a flood of cheap, shoddy products . . . often decked out in trick packages or colors to make them seem novel and attractive. It means the loss of public faith, because the public soon grows weary of unwarranted claims and bombastic challenges.

The Atlantic Refining Company has been in the forefront of every important gasoline improvement. Yet you will find no circus stunts in the promotion of ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH. No wild statements to insult your intelligence.

Atlantic is satisfied to continue making a motor fuel of outstanding merit, and let that fuel do its own selling job . . . in the engine of your automobile. Day in and day out, year in and year out, it is held and will be held to the highest quality we know.

This is why, we believe, ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH not only continues to hold the loyalty of its old customers, but is constantly attracting the patronage of other discriminating motorists.

WEST BRISTOL DROPS ANOTHER TO NEWPORT

BRISTOL SUBURBAN LEAGUE

Last Night's Results
NEWPORT ROAD, 5; W. BRISTOL, 1
CUBANS, 7; ELEPHANTS, 6 FURMANS, 3; FEGUSONVILLE, 1

West Bristol A. C., cellar champs of the first half of the Bristol Suburban League, dropped another decision last night at Newportville where they were downed by the Newport Road Men's Club, 5-1.

The Newporters went right into the lead in the first inning when Bigger, Crossley and Kogel crossed the plate. West Bristol scored one in their turn when Hamm singled, stole second and scored on Lewis' hit. Heston's hit in the third helped the Road team to count up two more in the third and put the game on ice.

"Wes" Heston led the Newport team in victory with three hits. Ziegler was credited with two. "Tommy" Davis was the winning hurler while the losing hurler was "Johnny" Corrigan.

It was the opening game of the second half of the Bristol Suburban League.

Five runs in the first inning was enough for the Cubans to register a 7-1 victory over the White Elephants on the Bath Road diamond.

The colored champs scored their runs on four hits and a pass with an error sandwiched between. The Elephants rallied in the third and fourth innings to take a 6-5 lead and wipe out the five runs scored in the first, but two runs in the sixth meant a victory for the colored boys.

"Jim" Spencer was the winning moundsman, and although hit hard, was well able to hold his own in tight spots of the game.

On the Pine street field the Furmans scored a 3-1 victory over the Fergusonville team. The Furmans, with a revamped line-up, looked like pennant contenders, and appear to have a strong combination for the second-half fight.
